FOX SALE.—One bay saddle mare 7 years old, a good indro, old and in perfect condition; work anywhere; lady broke. Can be seen any day at G. V. Cain's stable at Sherrington. I have a cated in Ohio and will keep a horse, hence this sale. Address H. H. MORGAN, M. D., Manchester, Ohio.

FARMERS' INSTITUTE.—Samuel Patrick, of Louisville, was here last week to prepare for holding the Bath County Farmers' Institute in the Court-house here Monday and Tuesday, August 29 and 30. The program, which is published in this issue, promises to give the farmers instruction in important matters of farming.

Hereafter the interest in the sessions of the Institute has been so small that very few have attended. The State goes to much expense in this matter, and the farmers should attend to see whether or not the Institute is worth while. It may be more useful to them than they have suspected.

READ THIS.—Notice No. 2.—I have sold out to R. Clyde Byron my interest in the GROCERY business, and a prompt settlement of your account is requested; and in order to wind up the old business, please call and settle at once. Thanking you for all past favors, S. D. THOMPSON.

I have bought out my partner, "Dud" Thompson, and come in and settle your account, and try me under the new cash system just adopted, as by a concentration of operating force and reduction of profits I expect to make it to your interest to spend your cash with me. R. CLYDE BYRON.

OBITUARY.—Little Hester K. Maddox fell asleep to awake with Jesus on August 14, after a few days of suffering. All was done for her that loving hands could do, but God wanted little Hester to go, and he called her home to be with her father, Elmer Maddox, who preceded her to glory six weeks.

Her sufferings are over, and she sleeps that sweet and peaceful sleep of the redeemed in Christ, until he comes and gathers his saints home to be with him through all eternity.

Dear mother, weep not for little Hester who knew where to find her. This is only a dressing room for eternity, and we ought to praise God when he sees fit to call one of our little ones home, for we know we can join them if we only live true to God.

Little Hester was born Oct. 8, 1890. Her stay on earth was short, but we miss her little form and sweet voice, and a place in our home is vacant. Oh, the long agony of separation; it is awful to stand in your misery fighting back tears from the couch of your child, trying to hold fast the little one and see it so near to us, and then to know that its spirit is gone and you have nothing left but the casket that held the jewel; and that in two or three days you must even put that away. It's so desolate sometimes there are feelings of rebellion, and I resolve to feel differently when suddenly I come upon some little dress, picture or shoe, and how all the flood of the soul burst in one wall of agony. Oh, my God, how hard it is to part; to close those little eyes that can never look merry at your ordering to kiss the little hand that can never lie upon your cheek, and hear the voice say "Mamma, I love you."

And see those little innocent eyes looking into your own and to think they are closed forever. But God moves best and doth all things well, so do not mother, live true to God and ever be ready to join little Hester where parting is no more.

Look up, dear mother, above. Although the billows run on sea and swell; Is not your darling safe on high? Can you not answer "It is well?" Though we'll see her never more, Her little form to earth be given, She rests where pain and grief are o'er, And you can meet your child in Heaven.

RESOLUTIONS.—Hall of Bath Lodge, No. 55, F. and A. M., Owsingville, Ky., Aug. 12, 1910.

Whereas the inexorable laws of nature have by death taken from us our brother, friend and neighbor Captain William Penrose Conner, who died August 10, 1910,

Therefore be it resolved that, in his death while at a ripe old age, we deeply deplore his death, and that this lodge loses an honored and faithful member, the country a brave and gallant patriot, and the community a kind and benevolent citizen.

Resolved that we extend to his family, especially his son, who has so faithfully nursed him for the past several years, and to all who so much miss his kindly presence, our sincere sympathy in their loss.

Resolved that the brethren wear a badge of mourning and the lodge room be suitably draped for a period of thirty days.

Be it further resolved that a copy of these resolutions be sent the family of the deceased, a copy be placed upon the records of this lodge, and a third one be sent to the Masonic Home Journal and one to THE OWSINGVILLE OUTLOOK for publication.

C. F. MARTIN, Committee. C. F. K. WELLS, ALBERT PALMER, Secretary.

BIRTHDAY PARTY.—Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Palmer's daughter Kathleen Palmer entertained the following little folks Friday afternoon, Aug. 19, in honor of her seventh birthday anniversary: Micha Martin, Leona Palmer, Louis Schwab, Jno. T. Kimbrough, Robert Brown, Byron, Leo Hines, Frank Dally, Palmer Coyle, Edward Hutcheson, Richard S. Charles, Honaker, Susan Richards, Howard Patterson, Constance Botts and Mary Bruce Dally.

The guests amused themselves first with a peanut hunt and then the various children's games and plays, but their delight was unbounded when they were introduced into the dining-room, where refreshments were served.

The color scheme was white and yellow, which was carried out in the decorations and eatables, white cake being served with orange jelly. It was great sport to the little fellows to blow out the seven candles on the birthday cake, and they proceeded to blow out the other candles also. The children drank lemonade, which was made in a galvanized iron tub. Some was left in the tub, and next morning more lemons, sugar and water were added to that in the tub and stirred up.

The children drank some of it, and soon began to get sick. Bessie Cassity, aged 9 years, daughter of Jeff (Bud) Cassity, who is present, was the last (Wm. Wyatt), took very sick and died Friday morning. Bud Cassity is a son of Walker Cassity and a brother of Mrs. Samuel Ratliff, of the Owsingville house.

The child was buried at Howard's Mill Saturday.

Nothing has as yet been made public as to what has been done by those having in charge the selling of the pooled Burley tobacco.
